

Iterations of Gaia
VOL I
By: BAEVY

I noticed this baby shoe an mile ago
I always come to the same spot since the first time it's fallen further into decay
engulfed by the kelp and twigs every day one step closer to nothing and always further from being worn on babies feet
perhaps I should have

Bayview

I noticed this baby shoe awhile ago
I always come to the same spot
since the first time it has fallen further
everyday one step closer to and always further from nothing being worn on babies feet perhaps I should throw it away spare its misery
(I didn't)

my stomach hurts from yelling and chasing after my dog wanted to protect our cove
from a visitor

as his owner I had to enforce his authority perhaps I should never let him out of leash

but I believe he deserves to be here

Bayview

my stomach hurts from yelling and chasing after my dog he wanted to protect our cove
from a visitor

but

as his owner

I had to silence his authority perhaps I should never let him off lease

but I believe

he deserves to be the lights go on in the mountains and everyone obeys.

the ground was sharp
at first til I settled in
in a shift
like your cruelty I became / accustomed to until I went digging in your subconscious & and brought a news ~~out~~ to ~~scraps~~ scraps

Briones Park

at first til
I settled in
accustomed to until I went diggin
in your subconscious and brought a new scratchiness to light

one via ~~is~~
and I wonder if they know

or show up again and again thirsty
I'd like to think they find
water down here unsalted
by the Pacific

good water clean water life-giving I'll see her come for me a I remember you

Limed Cab
Regions

the bird fountain is empty and I wonder if they know

or show up again
&
again

water elsewhere unsalted

good water
clean water
life-giving
I hope the same for me
as I redirect
your call

picture of the sunset
surely expose my drawing is wrong
& my interpretation was error because I did not have the time to understand it
the skill capture it
perhaps its the same when I describe you to people

Keller Beach Park

my picture of the sunset will surely expose my drawing as if my interpretation was

is wrong
errored
because I didn't have the time
or the skills to capture it perhaps its is...

when I describe the same
they understand you to people you're beautiful

but not how much
my bad.
